It is important that you either use the link above if you reserve your rooms online or the group code if you call to make reservations. IMPPA has an allocated amount of hotel rooms we have to fill, so please make sure you are in our room block.

Convention Registration

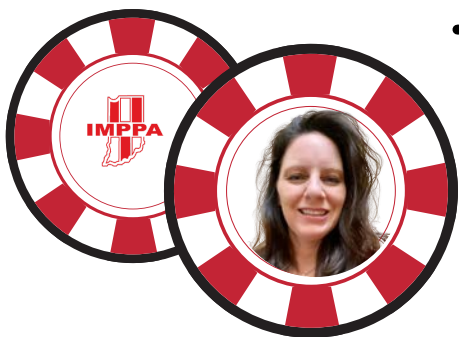

o Due to IMPPA office on 2/11/22

Please bring an item for the silent auction!

All proceeds go towards our scholarship fund.

The Hoosier Cured Meat Championship registration will happen on site.

Please bring a check or cash to pay for your entries! PLEASE ENTER! This is a great way to not only see how your products compete against others in the state, but to also see how you can improve your products. IMPPA has some great judges lined up to evaluate your products. The judges are informed to write notes and give advice on ways to improve your products. This is a great learning experience

Please write down my contact information incase you have a question during convention you can contact me.
